Vesterday was a red letter day for the Norwegians all over the world. The celebration hast night in St. Mark's hall will be long remembered as one of the biggest and most enjoyable gatherings the Norwegians have ever had in this state. About a clock they began to assemble and when Charlie Gulbransen called them to order at 8:29 there were probably 400 of "Nordens some or glottur" assembled in the arge hall, which had been converted no a banquet hall.

Three long tables extended the length of the room and one across the end.

Easton, assistant principal of the Ogden high school, or some other suitable man, concluded to yield to the will of the majority. Consequently, there will be no change next year in the high school principalship. Before the conclusion of last evening's executive session the board completed the list of principals of the twenty-five grade schools to be employed next year. There are two changes in the present roster, but the members declined to give out the names of the two new principals, or the ones who were not fortunate in securing reemployment. It was, however, asserted by the members that Principal McCoy's name was not in the list of the rejected, his case having been definitely settled Tuesday night on a decision to retain his services.

Many Matters Acted On.

In open session it was decided that the date of commencing school work for next year should be Monday, Sept. II, and the examination of applicants for primary grammar and high school teachers' certificates was fixed for June 5, 6 and 7.

icachers certificates was fixed for June 5, 6 and 7.

It was agreed that the board's arrangement with the state university for instructing pupils in the normal training course should be continued as heretofore, the board paying the actual per capita cost of each pupil from the high school taking such course.

Miss Carrie L. Paine of the high school corps was granted a leave of absence to accompany Miss Irene Dickson on a trip abroad.

In order that the Hebrews of the Montifiore congregation may have a place of worship, the board resolved to rent the unused Thirteenth ward brick schoolhouse to them, but as a necessary preliminary, on Mr. Bamberger's motion, the colored tenants were ordered notified that the rent is raised from $2$ to $18$ a month in advance, which amount, with arrearages, must be paid at once, or the building vacated.

HIGH SCHOOL BANQUET. Alumni Association Will Entertain the Class of '99.

The High school Alumni association met yesterday afternoon and heard the met yesterday afternoon and heard the report of its executive committee. The manner of entertaining the class of '99, as suggested by the committee, provides for reception, banquet and ball in the assembly room of the High school, to take place on the evening of Saturday, Jone J. This suggestion was adopted by the association, and the following committees appointed to take the affair in charge:

Finance-Maud Clark, '94; Lena Manning, '97; Bessle Snyder, '98.

Licfreshments-Martie Hall, '98; Florence Dye, '96; Myra Sowles, '85.

A reception committee of ten is yet to be appointed. Samuel Grice, confessed burglar, was Samuel Grice, confessed burgiar, was sentenced for a term of two years yesterday by Judge Norrell. Grice is an undersized, sallow-complexioned man with a heavy moustache and a deprecatory, almost timid look about his eyebrows. He did not seem to mind his sentence very greatly, for it is not by any means the first time he has gone through the ordeal.

Grice is a notorious harness thief, and be has been mixed up in more cases than he has fingers and toes. A goodly portion of his time of late years has been spent behind the bars. A second case against him for house-breaking is in the hands of the county attorney, but it will doubtless be dismissed shortly, for an agreement to that effect was reached on Monday when Grice pleaded guilty to burgiery.

Grice ciaims to be an Englishman, and says he was in the English army for some time. He likewise asserts that he was awarded the Victoria Cross for bravery. He was taken to the pententiary last evening. ntenced for a term of two years ves-

WATER RIGHTS INVOLVED.

Draper Case On Trial Before Judge Cherry. A suit involving important rights in Draper was on trial in Judge Cherry's court yesterday. John W. Smith, the plaintiff, sued the Draper Irrigation company for $500 damages to his fruit orchards by the destruction of his irrigating ditch in the spring of 1907.

The company claimed that Smith was a shareholder in it, and that he was entitled to a certain amount of water from its ditch, but that he had drawn water from the ditch from above the headgate used by the other stockholders, and had taken more than his share. The case will probably last through today.

Ferguson & Cannon appeared for the plaintiff, and Lindsay Rogers for the defendant.

MISSIONARY REUNION.

the South.

This evening, at the Twenty-first ward meeting-house, there will be a ward meeting-house, there will be a meeting of returned eiders of the Mormon church, who have labored in the southern stntes mission. Thirty returned missionaries have signified their intention to be present, and besides addresses by Joseph A. Williams and Elias S. Woodruff, there will be a very interesting musical programme. All missionaries, particularly those who have labored in the southern states, are invited, and all others who are interested will be made welcome.

WANT THE FOREST RESERVE ORDER RESCINDED.

Mass-meeting of Utah and Wyoming Sheep-owners to Be Held-Delegates Will Go to Washington.

The sheepmen of Utah and western Wyoming have decided to make a concentrated move with the object in view of trying to induce the government to rescind its order prohibiting the grazing of sheep on the Uintah reservation. ing of sheep on the Uintah reservation.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Utah Woolgrowers' association will take place next Saturday aftermoon at 4 o'clock at the office of W. L. Pickard in the Atlas block. The members of this committee are E. H. Callister and W. L. Pickard of this city, J. C. Mackay, W. H. Haigh and Henry Harker of Taylorsville, Jesse M. Smith of Layton and J. S. Houtz of Ogden. At this meeting the question will be discussed and a mass-meeting of Utah and western Wyoming sheepmen called, which will be held in this city some time during the latter part of this month or the first part of June. The meeting is to be one of sheepmen in general, and not confined to members of the association. That organization is merely taking the affair in charge.

The sheepmen argue that it is unreasonable and profiles on the part of the government to keep sheep out of the government to keep sheep out of the reservation, and the enforcement of the order means a very serious in the part only not only to sheep-owners but to

USE FOR JUBILEE FLOATS.

Manufacturers and Merchants May Use Them at the Fair.

A plan has been suggested, which if carried out, will result in a practical utilization of the floats used during the Pioneer Jubiles. These were turned over during the winter to the Pioneer Monument fund, and are now stored in the exposition building at the state fair grounds. The D. A. and M. society has in contemplation the setting aside of one day during the fair this is done the manufacturers and merchants will be invited to give a public parade. The idea is to dispose of the floats to those who would like of the merchants will be invited to give a public parade. The idea is to dispose of the floats to those who would like of the merchants would be as cheng a way as any for the merchants to provide for themselves proper representation. The sicely proposes that after the parade has been carried out the merchants may further use the floats during the exposition by lining them up on either side of the walk from the west gate to the entrance of the exposition building, which space will be reserved for that purpose.
